

3rd EXCELLENCE IN JOURNALISM DAY CONFERENCE
DEC. 3, 2016 CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY

Coffee & welcome 9:30 a.m. AF209ABC

	AF206A	AF206B	AF206C	AF208
10-11:15 a.m.	Breaking News S. Hernandez, Lee	The Rise of Investigative News Sites Santana, Hasemeyer, Arellano	Race & Society Do, Carcamo, Higgs, Coulter	Surviving and Thriving as a TV News Reporter: Turning Boring Reports into Memorable Stories Little
11:30-12:45 p.m.	Speaking of Sports Feuer, Harmonson	What's the Next Digital Disruption in journalism? R. Hernandez, French	Terror & Tragedy: The San Bernardino Massacre Guimarin, Hagen	Narratives revisited TBA
BOX LUNCH 12:45-1:15 AF209	BOX LUNCH 12:45-1:15 AF209	BOX LUNCH 12:45-1:15 AF209	BOX LUNCH 12:45-1:15 AF209	BOX LUNCH 12:45-1:15 AF209
1:15-2:30	Party like a Journalist: Entertainment reporting in the 21st century Mendoza, Franko	Night Crawlers: Chasing news John & Nancy Casper	Accountability: Digging Into politics & government Berzon, Sforza, Gottlieb	The Big Picture: Who's reinventing journalism? Schaffer, Rieder

Showcase panel

2:30-4 AF 209 ABC

Is Objectivity Dead?

The recent presidential campaign brought into sharper focus the debate over usefulness of the "objectivity" method practiced by mainstream news organizations for decades. Is objectivity still an essential cornerstone of journalism? Are there alternate ways to serve audiences, say, with more analysis, or does point-of-view with transparency better serve readers?

Rem Rieder, Jan Schaffer, Bret Marcus