

Intern for Rep. Rod Blum in the Iowa 1st District

Work on the most competitive mid-term election campaign in America!

Description:

Rod Blum (R) is a 2 term US Congressman who believes in individual liberties, fiscal responsibility, limited government and family values. He was initially elected in this battleground district by 2% in 2014, and is seeking his 3rd term in the House. This race has been ranked #1 most competitive in the nation. President Trump, VP Pence, Mick Mulvaney, Mark Meadows, and many others have already visited the district. There is no better race to be involved in than here in Iowa's "fighting first."

Interns will be involved in a variety of tasks associated with helping the Rod Blum campaign including:

- Voter outreach (door knocking/cold calling)
- Working with conservative college groups and clubs
- Organizing campaign and donor rallies
- Facilitating early voting locations
- Other campaign related projects

Benefits:

- Stipend $1,000 per month (may increase as election nears)
- College credit if applicable
- Housing provided
- Signed letter of recommendation by sitting US Congressmen
- Networking opportunities with high level political operatives
- Develop lifelong friendships with other college age political junkies you live and work with

Dates:

- Now through Election Day, November 6th

Requirements:

- Interns must have a strong work ethic and good interpersonal communications skills. Interns should also be familiar with Congressman Blum's policy positions and be willing and able to defend them intelligently.

If you are interested or would like more information, please contact our campaign manager Spencer Flake at

Spencer@rodblum.com