2 WEEK WINTER PLACEMENT

28TH DECEMBER - 11TH JANUARY 2019

3 WEEK SPRING PLACEMENT

11TH APRIL - 3RD MAY 2019

Politrip is offering a unique opportunity to learn about and gain experience volunteering in Northern Irish politics. If successful in securing a place on this competitive programme, you will work alongside other volunteers from the US as an intern to help campaign for Northern Irish Council candidates in the 2019 Local Government Election!

VOLUNTEER:

- Work directly with your allocated candidate or party to deliver a campaign strategy
- Undertake targeted doorstep campaigning in key communities
- Use software to prioritize & engage with voters and manage voter data
- Deliver social media strategies and generate engaging content
- Recruit and train new volunteers

EXPERIENCE:

- Social events in Belfast & Dublin
- A 'Black Cab' Troubles tour of Belfast
- The scenic NI North Coast including the Giant's Causeway, Bushmills Distillery, Dunluce Castle and Carrick-Rede Rope Bridge
- Visit St Patrick's hometown
- See multiple Game of Thrones filming locations

LEARN:

- How to campaign effectively in a completely new environment, enabling you to work in communities anywhere!
- A history of Northern Ireland – partition, division, The Troubles and the Good Friday Agreement
- The Northern Irish political system and the challenges of post-conflict governance
- Brexit and its impact on politics, peace and the economy

NETWORK:

- Meet with senior figures from up to 5 of NI's political parties, including Party Leaders, Deputy Leaders and Ministers
- Volunteer alongside elected representatives from all levels of government – Westminster, Legislative Assembly & Local Council
- Tour Parliament Buildings at Stormont, Belfast
- Meet with issue-specific lobby groups on issues such as Brexit, abortion, gay marriage, integrated education and the Irish language
- Attend relevant lectures and events at Queen's University Belfast
