

Musco Center Presents Heartbeat of Mexico
In association with Chapman University Latinx Staff & Faculty Forum and Hilbert Museum

Big Ideas is a free, public series exploring the depths of Mexican and Mexican-American culture by top academics in the fields of Mexican Studies, Religious Studies, and Music, leading to the Heartbeat of Mexico festival at Chapman University from May 26-27, 2018

Thurs, Apr 19 | 6-7:30pm

Mexicans at Work
How Mexican Ethnicity
Becomes Part of the Workday

Dr. Ruben Espinoza

Wed, Apr 25 | 6-7:30pm

Día de Los Muertos
From Aztec Mythology to Disney's Coco

Dr. Rafael Luévano

Thurs, Apr 26 | 6-7:30pm

Where is Mozlandia?
Morissey Fans in the Borderlands

Dr. Melissa M. Hidalgo

Thurs, May 3 | 6-7:30pm

Booming Bandas of Los Angeles
Women Musicians in Oaxacan
Philharmonic Brass Bands

Dr. Xóchitl C. Chávez

Thurs, May 10 | 6-7:30pm

The Trailblazing
Women of Mariachi

Dr. Leonor Xóchitl Pérez

Leatherby Libraries • Center for American War Letters Archives • B03

For more information, please contact Dr. Ruben Espinoza • respinoza@chapman.edu